Cluster for Logistics Luxembourg has announced several events taking place in April 2016 as part of the country's Logistics Week.

The first event, on Tuesday 19 April 2016, will comprise a professional conference based on 'Crossborder E-Commerce and Logistics'. The conference will feature experts from the field discussing opportunities for Luxembourg, and will take place at 17:00 at the Chamber of Commerce. For more information and to register, visit www.c4l.lu under 'Events'.

An Open Door Day on Thursday 21 April 2016 will see multiple logistics companies open their doors to reveal and explore the complexity of the international supply chain and the role of various logistics players. No-Nail Boxes/Alipa in Wiltz; Arthur Welter in Leudelange; IEE in Echternach; Luxport Group/Lorang in Mertert; Streff at Windhof; and Husky in Dudelange will all be taking part in the initiative by presenting their assets and activities to the public.

Participation in the event is free-of-charge but registration is required as places are limited. The visits will be held at the premises of the companies. To register, click here or for more information and updates contact +352 42 39 39 848.
